PennDOT—Property Damage Insurance Claims to the Commonwealth

If you experienced damage to your vehicle or property and would like to submit a claim to the commonwealth, please file an insurance claim to the PA Bureau of Finance and Risk Management (FARM)

at: https://www.penndot.pa.gov/ContactUs/Pages/Damage-Claims.aspx

or by scanning this QR Code

The commonwealth's Bureau of Finance and Risk Management (FARM) within the Department of General Services is responsible for determining if a claim should be paid. FARM is not associated with PennDOT.

NOTE ABOUT POTHOLE DAMAGE: You have the right to file a claim for damages to your vehicle as the result of hitting a pothole. Please be aware that FARM is required to investigate and adjudicate claims against the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in accordance with PA C.S.A. Title 42 § 8522. Exception to Sovereign Immunity (b)5. Potholes and other dangerous conditions, which specifically prohibits the payment of a property damage claims caused by potholes, sinkholes, and/or conditions created by the natural elements. FARM is bound by the provisions of Act 152 and is required to deny the claim. This applies to every claim except in very limited circumstances.
